Concerning Soil Tillage

After the ground is plowed, it should be disced and harrowed until all lumps are finely pulverized. This is because the delicate plant roots cannot penetrate hard lumps and are, therefore, deprived of much plant food. Tillage increases the availability of plant food elements by changing the arrangements of soil particles and bringing together those that have not before been in contact. It also changes the relation of the soil with air, water, salts and acids in the soil, making available plant food that would otherwise remain dormant.

HIGH SCHOOL RECEPTION DAY WE WISH TO THANK ALL OUR CUSTOMERS

Yesterday afternoon M. H. S. gave a reception to the public of Maysville and Mason county.

There were on display exhibits of the work of the various departments and the exhibits were explained and lectured on by the following:

English—Miss Hilda Threlkeld.
Languages—Miss Margaret Haberman.

History—Miss Nellie Sutherland.
Science—Mr. Leonard Brooking.
Mathematics—Mr. Eugene McCarthy.

Domestic Science—Miss Edith Dickson.

All the High School display work was in the auditorium, which was decorated especially for the occasion.

The Domestic Science department had their display in the Domestic Science luncheon room, in the south basement, where beautiful girls dispensed tea and wafers. This exhibit was of especial interest, as it is a new department in our school and also from this source the future housewife of the vicinity receives there initial knowledge in the art of cookery. When the School Board installed this department is did a great deal for the community at large.

NOTES.

Over three hundred people registered at the door. Some crowd.

Miss Dickson's Domestic Science girls can sure cook.

The Victor Tea & Spice Company furnished the tea for the lunch of the Domestic Science department.

The National Biscuit Company donated the wafers for the refreshments served by the Domestic Science girls.

The auditorium was decorated until it resembled a bower of beauty.

Prof. Caplinger was all over the building, greeting and shaking hands with every one.

A day like yesterday is a red letter day in the history of the public schools. Let them come often.

The Ledger man was tempted to annex one of those chocolate cakes in the Domestic Science department.

The work of the teachers was untiring to make it the big success it was, and they deserve all the praise one can give them.

LIMESTONE LUMBER CO.

The saw and planing mill plant of W. B. Mathews & Company, one of the oldest in the Ohio Valley, is to be succeeded by the Limestone Lumber Company, which new firm has taken over the entire plant, property, lumber, logs, landing, etc., etc., corner Second and Commerce streets, belonging to the old company, and will continue and greatly increase the business.

Following are the new officers of the new concern:

President—McAttee Case.

Vice President—S. D. McDowell.

Secretary and Treasurer—Charles C. Dobyns.

The new company expects to be in full operation by May 1, when a score of men will be put to work, with more to follow as the business increases.

The Mathews saw milling plant has, up to the past few years, been one of Maysville's principal industries, and has, during the management of Mr. W. B. Mathews and Mr. Charles C. Dobyns, paid out hundreds of thousands of dollars for material and to employees, and strictly owing to the health of Mr. Mathews the change is made.

The Limestone Lumber Company will begin at once to lay in stock and the big wheels will soon be running and the welcome whistle sounding its joyous call to work.

NARROW ESCAPE

Yesterday while at play during the noon recess at the Forest Avenue school, little Archibald Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ola Holland, of Beach street, Sixth Ward, was run down by Dr. Taylor's auto, which was being driven by William Tolle, who made desperate efforts to steer around the child, but failed, knocking Archibald down and passing over his body.

He was taken to his home in the car and when last heard from was resting easily and will soon be able to be back to school, having suffered only slight cuts about the head and body.

THE POSSUM HUNTERS.

The alleged threats and claims of possum hunters, as recited by a witness in the trial at Morgantown have all the earmarks of empty and extravagant terrorizing. The statement said to have been made by a leader of the band that they were 500 strong in his section and that "80 per cent of the people were possum hunters" is ridiculous on the face of it. This is an old trick of lawless bands and should cause no undue concern. But when it is taken in conjunction with aht other boast that "they were not afraid of the courts" because of their number and strength, the necessity arises for swift and decisive action on the part of the law. This is an evident effort at intimidation, and from the suspicion of anything like intimidation the authorities and the law-abiding citizenry should keep themselves entirely free. The power of such bands as these lies not in their actual strength, but in the fear that they strike to the heart of the community by just such empty boasts and foolish threats as these. It is the business of the authorities to disclose the vacuity of these things and deal with the offenders themselves in such a manner to reassure the community and discourage any attempt at future terrorizing.—Courier-Journal.

THE WAY TO GOOD BUSINESS.

When the President asks business men what to do to untie American business he will learn that there is only one way—just untie it. Take off the laws which forbid men to pool their business. Throw away the theories of the small losing because the large do more business. Destroy forever the un-American idea that an elephant is dishonest because it is large, and a mouse is abused because it is small. Get laws fitted to human beings, not for assumed pygmy saints and bandits hercules.

And incidentally fix the trifl to inform the world that we know we have more business at home than all others can give us, and are protecting it by sane laws. That is Americanism. Ask business men, and they will answer right. Look the professors up in their classrooms, and there will be business enough, and the small will get more for the money invested than the large, but they will not pay so many wages. Abolish trusts by forgetting them.—Worcester Telegram.

THE WORLD DO MOVE.

(From a Speech by Elihu Root.) I had a count made not long ago in the Library of Congress of the number of laws that had been passed in five years, ended December 1, 1913.

I found that more than 62,000 laws had been passed by Congress and the state Legislatures in this country in that five years, and I found that there had been reported during that five years and published in 630 volumes of reports of the Courts over 65,000 decisions of Courts of last resort in this country. Now, even Mr. Choate does not know them all by heart. How can you possibly know them? How can you conduct your business and keep out of jail?

THANX, MR. HOLLAND.

Those on the water wagon in the city of Maysville thank Mr. Frank Holland that he did not suicide in the reservoir, as was reported and indicated a few days ago. Please keep out of our drinking water, gents. If you want to suicide seek some quiet hog pond or butt your head agin a "grump stump."

The San Francisco Chronicle says if the tariff would take care of the unemployed manufacturer, there would be no general unemployed problem.

THE WOMEN HOLD BALANCE OF POWER IN CHICAGO.

Official figures in the Chicago election gave Thompson a plurality of 150,000, an unprecedented figure. His Democratic opponent, Robert M. Sweitzer, received a total vote of 251,309. Five months ago Sweitzer was elected county clerk by a plurality of 75,000.

The grand total of votes was 669,658, the largest number ever cast by any city in the United States. Of this number 250,000 were cast by women, who exercised for the first time their right to vote for mayor in Chicago.

The women voters were overwhelmingly on the Republican side.

BOOST BUSINESS, DON'T BUST IT.

If the people of this country want commercial and industrial activity they will need the advice of our able and successful business men. In the prosperous nations of the world, the government is just as truly behind the big men of business as it is behind the soldiers and the sailors of its armies and its fleets. In this country we must return to the policy of having the government boost business instead of bust business.

NEWSPAPERS AND THE WAR.

It is a significant fact that despite the war in which Great Britain is playing a conspicuous part four periodicals—two Sunday newspapers, a popular weekly and an afternoon daily have been launched in London during the last fortnight. The new journals emanate from great publishing houses that are thoroughly in touch with business conditions and yet believe that the time is auspicious for their appearance.

THE FIGHT GOES ON.

The new Congress which meets next December will again face the woman suffrage question. A great pageant dramatizing the life work of Susan B. Anthony is to be staged early in December. It is planned to invite the 500 Senators and Representatives to attend this pageant. It is announced that in every detail this spectacle is to out do anything that has been planned to influence national legislation.

JAPAN'S GRIP ON CHINA.

China and Japan are said to have reached an agreement. Japan having done all the reaching and China the agreeing.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

BUT IT'S NO EASY MATTER.

Life's best joys are found in living on last month's salary instead of the one for the month just ahead.—Washington Post.

The Democratic platform denounced the increase in the number of government employees, and President Wilson made that a feature of his campaign addresses. But under Democratic rule, some 5,000 new places have been created, nearly all excluded from the Civil Service regulations, and about $10,000,000 is required to pay the cost of the new offices.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat remarks that Secretary Garrison is the only member of the cabinet who seems to consider facts more important than his own suppositions.

Felt Only "Tol'able."

An old negro, sent to a hospital, upon his arrival was placed in a ward, and one of the nurses put a thermometer in his mouth to take his temperature. When the house doctor made his round, he said:

"I feels right tol'able, suh."
"Have you had anything to eat yet?"
"Yessuh, I had a little."
"What did you have?"
"A lady done gimme a piece of glass to suck, suh."

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Ills of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Maysville testimony is proof of their effectiveness.

Mrs. Annie McClellan, 541 W. Second St., Maysville, KY, says: "I was often dizzy and nervous and my head ached. I had pain in my back and my kidneys were weak. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the complaint immediately and made me well and strong."

Mrs. McClellan is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. McClellan had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50¢ all stores. WASHINGTON LETTER

Newsy Gossip From the National Capital of Interest To All.

Washington, April 17.—"Recognition of the west" is the battle cry of the many western delegates who have arrived in town for the annual national congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which will begin its sessions Monday. The congress meets annually, but the president of the society is elected only every other year. This is election year and the delegates have arrived early in anticipation of a spirited campaign.

Secretary Garrison, it is understood, will direct that the War Department estimates for the next fiscal year shall include an item of $1,000 to maintain at the mounted service school at Fort Riley, Kas., a pack of hounds "for use in connection with approved program of instruction."

This has been jubilee week at the Catholic University of America, and the entire administration and student body of the famous institution in hand have been busy with the entertainment of the greatest congress of the Catholic church hierarchy that has ever assembled in this country. At the silver jubilee ceremonies Thursday, in commemoration of the university's rounding out its first twenty-five years of existence and progress, there were present for the first time at any public ceremony the three American cardinals—Gibbons, of Baltimore; O'Connell, of Boston, and Farley, of New York, together with thirty bishops, more than thirty monsignors and several hundred priests. One of the most honored guests of the occasion was Archbishop John J. Keane, the first rector of the university, who recently resigned the see of Dubuque.

Business men in this country are planning vigorous measures to bring about a change in the present manner in which American trade marks may be disregarded in South American countries. Under existing conditions, an American merchant may obtain a trade mark on a certain brand of goods in this country, but when he goes to one of the South American republics, he may find that some local merchant has registered an identical trade mark, and the American merchant can not send his goods into that country. In view of the present movement to increase trade between the United States and South American countries it is deemed of vital importance that something be done as soon as possible to remedy the matter.

Many persons passing the Capitol recently have paused to watch the men at work removing the broad steps leading to the main entrance of the building. These steps were laid about seventy-five years ago and for three-quarters of a century they have been trodden by statesmen of fame, many of whom have passed away long since. The steps were of sandstone and they had become splintered by the weather and worn by countless thousands of feet. Congress has appropriated $11,000 to replace the old steps with slabs of more durable marble or granite.

Three beautiful wine glasses owned and used by President John Quincy Adams during his occupancy of the White House have just been added to the valuable collection of china and glass at the executive mansion. These glasses were given by Mr. Hull and Miss Elizabeth Adams, nephew and niece, respectively, of President Adams, to Mrs. Archibald Campbell of this city. Later they came into the possession of Mrs. Bowman H. McCalla, widow of Rear Admiral McCalla, who has presented them to Col. W. W. Harts, in charge of public buildings and grounds, for addition to the White House collection.

That the Spanish language ranks next to English in importance was the belief expressed by Secretary of State Bryan in an address before the South American Club of the Y. W. C. A., the other evening. "A century from now Spanish will be spoken by more people than will any other language, save English," said the Secretary. "The breach between North and South America soon would be spanned if the people of the United States would become acquainted with simple Spanish words used in everyday communication."

Washington first spring clean-up and paint-up campaign is scheduled to begin Monday and continue until May 1. Every possible agency has been called upon to co-operate in this campaign, which is to be the most comprehensive and all-embracing the national capital has ever undertaken. Heretofore the annual spring clean-up has been a "cleanup" only, and the work has been done under the undivided supervision of the Clean City committee. This spring, however, the campaign is to be waged under the joint supervision of the Clean City committee and the executive committee of the Master House Painters and Decorators' Association of Washington. The latter organization has raised more than $1,200 with which to finance the campaign.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," said Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and I stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my work."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

The greatest economy of Ford cars is not in the low price but in the low after cost of operation—less than two cents a mile—in city and country. They are designed and built to serve and save; to bring the luxury of pleasure and the sturdiness in business work—this is why there are more than 700,000 now in use—this is what has made the Ford the universal car—these are the merits we present why you should buy a Ford.

Buyers of this car will share in profits if we sell at retail 300,000 new Ford cars between August 1914 and August 1915.

CHURCH NOTES

Third Street M. E. Church.—The services of tomorrow will conclude the special series of revival services that have been in progress for two weeks.

It is expected to be the best day of all.

Dr. Aultman, who has been delivering the very finest sermons from the very beginning, has reserved three of his biggest themes and best sermons for the “last and great day of the feast.”

At 10:45 a. m. he will use the Shep terd Psalm, the Twenty-third Psalm, as a basis for his sermon. In order to give the many of the other churches who desire to hear Dr. Aultman with out interfering with their attendance at their own churches, there will be an afternoon mass meeting, beginning with a thirty-minute song service at 2:30 p. m. Everybody is invited; men, women, boys, girls, all who desire to hear a great gospel sermon. The after noon subject will be “Freedom From Sin.”

At 7:30 p. m. will be the closing service. The subject will be “No Room for Jesus.” The best of singing
